

VERHEYDEN OÙ VISA?

Luxury shops in Paris ask their clients when standing at the counter, ready to pay, "Vuitton où Visa?". Someday soon this will be "Verheyden où Visa". Not?

SAINT BARBARA GOES UNDERGROUND

In the City of Genk, Saint Barbara is still alive and kicking. From December the 1st till February the 11th, an exhibition about her past and future will take place in the old townhouse of Genk. The exhibition contains a mix of folklore and contemporary art that is inspired by her tumultuous life (works of Kutluch Ataman, Pierre & Gilles, Els Dietvorst, Stephan Vanfleteren, ...). Exhibition design: Michaël Verheyden. www.cultuurcentrumgenk.be

WILD MEAT

The hunting season might just have begun, the exhibition "Wild Meat" on the contrary – an exhibition with works of young artists that celebrates the 30th birthday of the contemporary art gallery CIAP - has just ended. But to remind you of this successful exhibition, there is a beautiful catalogue (with works of Saartje Vereecke, Peter Hulsmans, Ben Meeuwis, Steven Brouns, Michaël Verheyden, ...). Thank you Peter Pollers and Jurgen Gaethofs. www.ciap.be

TOEGEPAST/APPLIED 11

Another exhibition that is about to end – on December the 3rd to be precise - is Toegepast 11. Toegepast is the annual showcase of young design talent that is linked to the province of Limburg, Belgium. Up to this year, Z33 has always been the organiser of Toegepast, but from this year on, Design Platform Limburg will take over the organisation. However, Z33 will continue to stay a kind host for the exhibition itself. Michaël Verheyden was asked to coach the designers, and to design the exhibition and the catalogue of the editions 11 and 12. Thank you Sanne Jansen (Design Platform Limburg), Tom Peeters (graphic design), Arthur Roovers (photography), Anneleen Peeters (interviews) and the Z33-team. www.designplatformlimburg.be www.z33.be
